State ~~War Office~~ Board of War to Thos Wharton 1777

Pensylvania War Office July 24th 1777

Sir

Captain Hercules Courtney informed this board that the last detachment of Colonel Proctors —— Regiment was to march this day; in Consequence of which, Fort Island will be left without a Guard, We thought it our duty to inform the Honorable Council thereof, and beg leave to suggest the propriety of sending a Company of the Militia from Billingsport to mount Guard at that place, as the ordinance & Stores there, are of Considerable value

I have the Honr to be with great respect

Your Excellencys

most Obedient Servant

Richd Bache Chairman

His Excellency Thomas Wharton jun.r Esqr.
